Note: - The Consideration money set forth in a transfer may differ from that which the first seller will receive, owing to sub-sales by the original Buyer: the Stamp Act requires that in such case the Consideration money paid by the Sub-purchaser shall be the one inserted in the deed, as regulating the ad valorem Duty; the following is the Clause in question: -

“Where a person having contracted for the purchase of any property, but not having obtained a Conveyance thereof, contract to sell the same to any other Person and the Property, is in consequence, conveyed immediately to the sub-purchaser, the conveyance is to be changed with ad valorem Duty in respect of the Consideration moving from the Sub-Purchaser” – (54 & 55 Vict., cap 39 (1891), Section 56, Sub-section 4).

+When a transfer is executed out of Great Britain it is recommended that the Signatures be attested by H.M. Consul or vice-Consul, a Clergyman, Magistrate, Notary Public, or by some person holding a public position, as most companies refuse to recognize Signatures not so attested. When a witness is a female she must state whether she is a spinster, Wife or Widow, and if a wife she must give her Husband’s Name, Address and Quality, Profession or Occupation. The date must be inserted in words and not in figures.
